FIRST WSOP CIRCUIT RING, FIRST WSOP CASH, FIRST TIME AT DISNEYWORLD FOR MATTHEW DETERRA

Former online poker player Matthew Deterra wins first WSOP Circuit Ring at Foxwoods Casino just days before heading to Florida for a family vacation

Matthew Deterra has not only obtained his first ever World Series of Poker cash in Event #3 here at the Foxwoods Circuit stop, but he also is taking home his first gold Circuit ring, along with $16,560. Deterra defeated a field of 360 players and played well into the wee hours of the morning where he ultimately defeated previous Foxwoods Circuit ring winner Dan Chalifour to take home the title.

Deterra used to play online a great deal, but since getting married to his wife Cortney, and having two beautiful children; Brielyn and Brady, Deterra's priorities have changed, and he focuses more on work and family. He works as a software developer and only plays poker about once a month.

When asked if he will continue to chase Casino Champion points at this stop, Deterra firmly declined, "I am taking my family to Disneyworld for the first time on Thursday. That will be more fun."
