Two Rings Make a Wright

Kyle Cartwright Wins Second Ring Event at Harrah's Tunica in Only his Fourth-Ever Live Tournament

TUNICA, MS. – Remember this name, Kyle Cartwright.

Like WSOP Circuit phenom Dwyte Pilgrim just over a year ago, it's one that you will come across until you can't help but take notice.

Cartwright shipped a second gold ring here in Ring Event # 9 at Harrah's Tunica. He is the first player to win two events in a single series since James Lopushinsky did so in the 2008/2009 Circuit Events at Caesars Palace and at 23, is the youngest to have ever accomplished the feat.

What Cartwright did last night was special. Not only because it was only the online player's fourth-ever live tournament appearance, but also because of the size of the fields had he had to overcome.

Lopushinsky beat out fields of 151 and 194 players to win his dual rings. Cartwright outlasted fields of more than double that - 410 and 508 to earn his.

This past year, the Bartlett, TN native completed his degree in finance at the University of Memphis. When asked where he had been the last couple of years, Cartwright said that his focus was on school and that although he played online while attending U of M, his education always came first.

Yes, Kyle is an impressive young man indeed.

With the essentials now under his belt, Cartwright turned his focus on poker, and after much success playing online, was encouraged by a friend to try his hand in live tournaments.

Cartwright says that in his first exposure to brick and mortar tournament play, he was not there to test the waters or gain experience.

"I came to win," he said
