H.O.R.S.E. OF COURSE!

Tim Burt Records Third WSOPC Ring at IP Biloxi.

Biloxi, MS (October 30, 2011) — The Circuit's newest champion is hardly new at all. Tim Burt worked his way through a field of 71 entrants over the course of two days to record his third WSOPC cash, third final table and, most importantly, third Circuit victory in the $345 H.O.R.S.E. at IP Casino Resort and Spa in Biloxi, Mississippi.

"All I get is first," Burt said shortly after his win.

With the win, Burt joins an elite group of three-time ring winners that includes Chris Fergusson, Dwyte Pilgrim, Kyle Cartwright and Michael Souza. All players trail the five rings set earlier this year by Mark "Pegasus" Smith when he bested 283 players to record his fifth Circuit win.

Remarkably, Burt's three Circuit rings come off only three Circuit cashes all within the last calendar year. Exactly one year ago he beat 78 players in a $345 H.O.R.S.E. at IP Biloxi to score his first ring. Only three months later he followed up his performance by beating 192 players in Omaha 8 or Better at the Palm Beach Kennel Club in Florida. Then, last night, he moved to legendary status by cashing in on his third WSOPC win.

Burt is a model for success on the Circuit, but if that isn't enough, his roommate is too. Burt rooms with two-time Circuit champ David Nicholson. Earlier this fall, Nicholson won the Main Event at Bossier City for over $120,000 and his first ring. About a month later, he scored ring number two with a convincing victory in Limit Omaha 8 or Better at Horseshoe Hammond.

A close relative of the WSOP gold bracelet, a Circuit ring is the ultimate token of achievement on the WSOPC.

At the beginning of Day 2, 21 players still had a chance at taking home the coveted prize, but after only a few hours of play, we were down to the final table and the remaining eight players stacked up like this.

Final Table:

Seat 1	Antony Vidmer	Nashville, TN	84,500
Seat 2	David Key	Baton Rouge, LA	109,500
