TOURNAMENT REPORT

Gary Bolden Wins WSOP Circuit Gold Ring

St. Louis Poker Player Tops Pot-Limit Omaha Event at Caesars Palace Las Vegas

Las Vegas, NV (January 23, 20112) – The World Series of Poker Circuit continued today at Caesars Palace Las Vegas.

The latest tournament champion is Gary Bolden, from St. Louis, MO. He won his first WSOP Circuit gold ring, in the friendly confines of a casino that had previously bestowed much success. Bolden has enjoyed 11 cashes in various majors played at Caesars Palace during the last two years, including two wins. His earlier victories were in the Mega-Stack Series, routinely held while the WSOP takes place in Las Vegas. This means Bolden now has three wins at Caesars alone.

Bolden's career tournament winnings are just as impressive. He's accumulated nearly $300,000 in earnings, all within a relatively short time frame.

Bolden, age 33, is originally from St. Louis, which has produced a fair number of talented poker players. But he now spends much of his time in Las Vegas and attending various poker tournaments.

For his victory, Bolden collected a payout, totaling $10,477 in prize money.

The runner up was Tom Christopher, who is also from Missouri.

Event #5 was a two-day $300 (+50) Pot-Limit Omaha tournament, which attracted 120 entrants. This was only official gold ring event on the Caesars Palace schedule that was a non-No-Limit Hold'em tournament.

Play began on Sunday at 5 pm and played to a conclusion on Monday night during the second day of action.

The total prize pool came to $34,920. The top 12 finishers were paid. All players who cashed received WSOP Circuit National Championship ranking points – used to qualify for a seat in the season-ending championship, to be played in Las Vegas.

Among the players that finished in the money was Brent Carter, a two-time WSOP gold bracelet winner and the winner of a gold ring at the counterpart to this same tournament held last year at West Palm Beach, FL. He took eighth place.

A full list of all players who cashed in Event #4 can be seen at WSOP.COM

With his victory, Gary Bolden moved up alongside the three previous champions as the early leaders in this WSOP Circuit's "Best All-Around Player" standings. The player who accumulates the most overall points in Caesars Palace's twelve combined gold ring tournaments receives a pre-paid entry into the $1 million 2011-2012 WSOP Circuit National Championship. At least two players from this tournament series will qualify for the WSOP Circuit National Championship, which is classified as a WSOP gold bracelet event. The other automatic qualifier will be the winner of Main Event championship (to be held Jan. 27-30).

Here are the four winners from Caesars Palace's WSOP Circuit gold ring events, which have been completed so far:

- Event #1 – Dan Di Zenzo defeated 482 players ($350 NLHE) and won $30,151
- Event #2 – Aaron Klausman defeated 887 players ($350 NLHE) and won $50,329
- Event #3 – Gregory Hartiwck defeated 207 players ($560 NLHE) and won $26,106
- Event #4 – Gary Bolden defeated 120 players ($350 PLO) and won $26,106

With the first four tournaments wrapped up, there are still eight more gold ring events remaining in what is being billed as a "12 rings in 12 days" poker series. The WSOP Circuit at Caesars Palace continues through January 30th. This year's schedule includes not only all the gold ring events, but multiple second-chance tournaments, single table and mega satellites, plus cash games going around the clock inside the action-packed Caesars Palace poker room

MORE ABOUT THE WSOP CIRCUIT AT CAESARS PALACE

This marks the seventh consecutive year that Caesars Palace Las Vegas is hosting the widely-popular World Series of Poker Circuit, which is currently in the midst of its most successful season. Attendance is currently running about 20 percent ahead of last year (which set a record).

Caesars Palace is already home to many of the game's most popular and exciting poker events – including the Caesars Classic, NBC Heads-Up Poker Championship, and last year's inaugural WSOP Circuit National Championship. However, between the dates of January 19-30, the primary focus will be on 12 gold ring tournaments with the $1,600 buy-in Main Event coming January 27-30.

“Caesars Palace has always carried with it a special aura -- whether we're talking about gambling, entertainment, or poker,” said Andy Rich, Director of Poker Operations for Caesars Palace. “We've always been the ‘where it's at’ in Las Vegas. Over the next 12 days, we're rolling out the red carpet for thousands of poker players who are expected enter our events and play for a gold ring. As the saying goes, ‘you can't get a hit if you don't stand up to the plate and take swing.’”

This marks the first time ever that the WSOP Circuit has come to Las Vegas so early in the season. In previous years, WSOP Circuit events have taken place in April. However, with so many exciting activities happening in Las Vegas early in the year, more players than ever before will have the opportunity to participate in a WSOP Circuit event, many for the first time. To encourage more players to give the WSOP Circuit a try, Caesars Palace is offering $70 buy-in Turbo Super Satellites, with $50 re-buys each morning starting at 10 am. These Turbo Super Satellites will be held prior to the start of gold ring events (most of which start at noon). The dailies will guarantee at least ten seats to be given away for that day's event. In short, it's a less expensive way for many players to come in early and win a seat for a gold ring event at a fraction of the cost.

In addition, daily No-Limit Hold'em tournaments (non-gold ring events) take place most days at 9 am ($70 entry fee, with 3,000 in starting chips), 7 pm ($110 entry fee, with 10,000 in starting chips) and 10 pm ($85 entry fee, with 7,500 in starting chips). The bottom line is – no poker room in Las Vegas (or anywhere for that matter) will host more tournaments over the next 12 days. Moreover, cash games will be running inside the poker room around the clock. Caesars Palace boasts one of the most luxurious poker rooms in the game. The multi-million dollar facility located adjacent to the world-famous sportsbook and Pure nightclub has a special tournament room, which is adorned with the portraits of many of poker's most legendary players.

This is the ninth WSOP Circuit stop of the season, following previous tournaments held in several other locations throughout the U.S. The 2011-2012 season includes a total of 18 WSOP Circuit stops.

All tournament players become eligible to compete in the WSOP Circuit National Championship, which takes place at season's end. The top 100 players who qualify based on a points system will compete in a nationally-televised championship, which is expected to be played in late May. Two guaranteed seats will be awarded at Caesars Palace and will go to the “Best All-Around Player” and the Main Event champion.

In previous year's, some very notable names have won gold rings at Caesars Palace and added to their legacy as the best players in the game. Previous WSOP Circuit Main Event Champions crowned at Caesars Palace include:

2006 – John Spadavecchia

2007 – Cory Carroll
2008 – Allen Cunningham
2009 – Justin Bonomo
2010 – Andrew Lichtenberger
2011 – Christopher Johnson
