First WSOP Cash Ever for Marina Del Rey Poker Player Results in Victory

Los Angeles, CA (January 12, 20112) – The World Series of Poker Circuit continued today at The Bicycle Casino, located in the Bell Gardens section of Los Angeles.

The latest tournament champion is James Paul Williamson, from Marina Del Rey, CA.

Williamson collected $16,412 in prize money for his win. He was also presented with the coveted WSOP Circuit gold ring, the top prize which is awarded to all Circuit event winners. This marked his first time to cash in a WSOP-related tournament.

However, Williamson's tournament record includes five major cashes and one previous victory – which took place at the Heavenly Hold'em series, back in 2007. With this win, Williamson has now accumulated about $70,000 in career tournament earnings.

Event #11 was a two-day $300 (+45) No-Limit Hold'em tournament, which attracted 217 entrants.

Play began on Wednesday at noon and played late on the night on the first day. The final table wrapped up on Day Two.

The total prize pool came to $63,147. The top 21 finishers were paid. All players who cashed received WSOP Circuit National Championship ranking points – used to qualify for a seat in the season-ending championship, to be played in Las Vegas.
