There are some who say that poker is now a young man's game. The generation of hotshot online poker pros tend to get stereotyped as single twenty-somethings who divide their time between grinding the tables and living the high life.

He may not be a twentysomething, but Cliff Josephy is most certainly a poker hotshot. The longtime poker pro has always been considered a legend of the online poker world, but today he reminded us that his live game isn't too shabby either, as he claimed his second career gold bracelet at a table stacked with young poker pros. He also earned an almost $300,000 payday.
