Davidi Kitai entered some select company on Sunday afternoon, earning his third career WSOP gold bracelet. What makes this feat particularly special is that he's now one of just three non-American players in poker history to win three or more WSOP titles in their lifetime. Jeffrey Lisandro, with dual citizenship in both Australia and Italy, is one. Daniel Negreanu, originally from Canada, is the other.

The poker pro from Brussels, Belgium topped a tough field in the $3,000 buy-in Six-Handed No-Limit Hold'em event, which played over four days and concluded on the main stage at the Rio in Las Vegas.
