Kevin Eyster, a poker pro originally from Louisiana now residing in Denver, has enjoyed considerable success during his seven years of playing tournament poker. He's posted 37 overall cashes and won major events before, including on the World Poker Tour. However, nothing came close to the grueling four-day marathon and associated prestige of his latest triumph, which took place in the $5,000 Six-Handed No-Limit Hold'em tournament

Eyster booked the most satisfying victory of his poker life, topping a highly-competitive field of 541 players in one of the toughest events on the schedule, pocketing $622,998 in the process.
