For some, life is an open book. For Russ “Dutch” Boyd, his poker life is more like an encyclopedia. The polarizing poker pro from Missouri who now resides in Las Vegas has endured some epic ups and downs over the years, many of which were chronicled in his recent biography, Poker Tilt.

However, even Boyd couldn't have dreamed of writing the perfect blockbuster follow-up chapter to what's been a make-believe life -- a victory in the $1,000 buy-in No-Limit Hold'em tournament and a third World Series of Poker gold bracelet. He collected $288,744 in prize money, and, perhaps just as important, enjoyed a joyous moment of personal and professional redemption in a game that has dished out just as many defeats as victories.
