David Smith Wins Turbo Event at Planet Hollywood

Las Vegas (November 24, 2014) – David Smith won the $365 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo event at Planet Hollywood Resort and Casino on Sunday, November 23, 2014. Smith, 37, from Burnaby, British Columbia, Canada, played this last one. A last-minute change of heart paved the way for his first WSOP Circuit ring and $11,171 in prize money.

For Smith, from Burnaby British Columbia, the ring holds extra value- it represents a victory over his own personal demons as well as over his opponents. After the event, he was visibly choked up, and took a moment to compose himself before he could describe what brought him to the top. "I realized that I my attitude was a problem. That was it. My attitude was what was stopping me. Taking bad beats immediately.

The victory represented the culmination of a lot of hard work for Smith, and it allows him to move forward. "I want five, but you gotta get one before you can get five. His dog, appropriately enough, is named Lucky.

The tournament was played in one day on Sunday, November 23. It started at 12 p.m. local time. Play finished at about 11:00 p.m., making the total duration of the tournament about 11 hours.

Full results from the event are available on WSOP.com.

At the conclusion of Event #13, Kheang Tang still holds the lead in the Planet Hollywood Casino Champion race. Tang has three cashes, including one ring and a runner-up finish. He now has 90 points. Raney Stanczak is in second placed with 65 points. Vincent Moscati and Jimmy Hellerer are tied for third place with 60 points. The player who accumulates the most overall points in the twelve gold ring tournaments at Planet Hollywood will receive an automatic entry into the $1 million 2015 WSOP National Championship. The winner of the Planet Hollywood Main Event earns an automatic entry to the National Championship as well. All players who cash in ring events will receive points that apply to both the Casino Champion race and the season-long race to claim one of the 50 at-large National Championship bids awarded to the top point earners throughout the season. More information on the points system is available on WSOP.com.
