Jared Palmer Wins the Final Event of the Horseshoe S. Indiana Series

Poker pro, Jared Palmer, wins his first WSOP gold ring and is looking for more.

Elizabeth, Ind. (Oct. 12, 2015) -- Jared Palmer has gone on to win the final event of the 2015 WSOP Circuit series at Horseshoe Southern Indiana. He defeated a field of 88 players in just 12 hours to earn his first career WSOP Circuit gold ring and the first place prize of $8,448.

The 30-year-old from Peebles, Ohio is a professional poker player. This marks his fifth career WSOP cash and second final table. His largest WSOP cash came in the summer of 2014 when he finished in 61st place out of 7,862 entries in the inaugural WSOP Monster Stack event. He earned $21,758 from just his $1,500 buy-in. Palmer now has nearly $40,000 in WSOP tournament earnings.

According to Palmer, he entered the final table second in chips, but the chip leader was on his direct left. Palmer took the chip leader for a massive pot and had about two-thirds of the chips in play with six players remaining. He had his opponents in bad shape and rode his lead to the finish.

Now Palmer has his first ring, but will be going for more. Palmer plans to head to Horseshoe Hammond, which is the next stop on the Circuit.

"I hope there are more [rings]. Now my friends can quit giving me a hard time," said Palmer about winning his first gold ring.
