Vincent Moscati Wins His 4th WSOP Circuit Ring

Moscatti Won the Turbo event at the Horseshoe Tunica for $9,629.

Tunica, Miss. (1 February 2016) . On Monday night, Vincent Moscati won the last event at the World Series of Poker Circuit stop at the Horseshoe Casino in Tunica. Moscati emerged victorious in Event #12: $365 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo. This was Moscati's fourth WSOP Circuit ring of his career.

With his fourth ring in hand, Moscati is now tied for tenth on the all-time rings list.

Moscatti took the Circuit by storm last season, winning his first three rings in a four-month span. But his most recent was about 11 months ago, and he was feeling a little pressure to get back to the summer, and I really wanted to hit something here, so this really feels good. Winning the last

When the final table began, Moscati held a substantial chip lead with 460,000. His next closest competitor had 163,000. He retained the lead throughout much of the final table, but lost it when there were three players left. For a while, he found himself with the short-stack and on the verge of elimination. But he battled back and

The timing of this win is especially good for Moscati. He said he has plans to go to Japan for a WSOP Circuit in Las Vegas at the end of the month.

The tournament began at 11:00 a.m. Monday morning with 107 players. The top 12 made the money. They reached the final table at about 7:45 p.m., and Moscati secured his victory just before 10:00 p.m.

At the conclusion of this event, Andrew Brinkley retains the lead in the Casino Champion race. Brinkley now has 87.5 points from a one victory and one runner-up finish. The player who accumulates the most overall points in the twelve gold ring tournaments at the Horseshoe Tunica earns the title of Casino Champion and receives an automatic entry into the $1 million 2016 WSOP Global Casino Championship. The winner of the Horseshoe Tunica Main Event also earns an automatic entry to the Global Casino Championship. All players who cash in ring events will receive points that apply to both the Casino Champion race and the season-long race to claim one of the 50 at-large Global Casino Championship bids awarded to the top point earners throughout the season. More information on the points system is available on WSOP.com.
