

2016 WSOP OFFICIAL REPORT

PETER EICHHARDT WINS BIG NO-HOLE-CARD NLHE

Swedish poker pro collects $438,417 for first place in Event #6

First of multiple $1,500 buy-in NLHE tourneys draws 2,016 entries

Tournament extends into an unscheduled fourth day

Davis Aalvik finishes as runner up, pockets $270,842 as consolation prize

WSOP.com reports that the tournament was a success for all involved.

MEET THE LATEST WSOP GOLD BRACELET CHAMPION

Name: Peter Eichhardt

Birthplace: Stockholm, Sweden

Age: 50

Current Residence: Stockholm, Sweden

Marital Status: Single

Children: 1 (daughter)

Profession: Poker Player and Writer

Number of WSOP Cashes: 2

Number of WSOP Final Table Appearances: 1

Number of WSOP Gold Bracelet Victories (with this tournament): 1

Total WSOP Earnings: $439,255

Personal Facts: Crime novelist (writer)

Quote of the Day:

"I was playing in the Bahamas and I looked around and everyone at the table was like between 21 and 30 and they were so good. And I was so bad. I was like a tourist there. I just made up my mind to start taking the game more seriously and do something about it. And, I did. I started studying a lot. I worked a lot at it, and now I'm here."

Peter Eichhardt (winner of Event #6 at 2016 WSOP)

However, it took him nearly 25 years to get here.

The 50-year-old poker pro and part-time fiction writer from Stockholm, Sweden won the $1,500 buy-in No-Hole-Card NLHE tournament.

