MICHAEL SCOTT BOOKS FIRST TOURNAMENT WIN IN THE MONSTER STACK

Family man wins his first ever tournament and Circuit ring at Thunder Valley

The two-day Monster Stack ended with Michael Scott being the last player standing, earning his very first Circuit ring and career tournament win. Scott topped a field of 376 entries and won $24,812 along with the title.

The medical consultant from Elk Grove, California was surprised and happy. "It feels really good. I'm still in shock" laughed Scott. "I honestly felt like, I hate to say this, like this was meant to be. I had pocket aces like nine times throughout the tournament, I had pocket kings another eight."

The husband and father laughed and said, "My wife's gonna be a little shocked. She knows I'm here playing but she didn't think I was gonna win."
