Edward Jolley Wins Event #1 in Tunica

Trucking business owner wins his first WSOP Circuit gold ring.

Edward Jolley has claimed the first gold ring of the 2018 Horseshoe Tunica Circuit series. He defeated a 332-player field over the course of a 17-hour day to take home the top prize of $22,909 and his first WSOP Circuit gold ring. This marked Jolley's second career WSOP cash. His first WSOP cash was four years ago here at Tunica when he just missed out on reaching a final table, finishing in 13th place for $1,378.

"I'm wore out, i'm tired, my throats hurting. I'm ready to go to bed and my back is killing me," said Jolley about playing marathon day of poker. "But it's cool. I've done it before. Me and my buddy go to Vegas every year to play the World Series. We're used to playing a stupid amount of time."

Jolley already has a one-week trip booked for the 2018 World Series of Poker where he will surly put in more long days at the table. Until then, Jolley plans to play more events at this series and try to make some more deep runs.

Jolley owns a trucking business. He plans to invest some of his prize money into his trucks.
