Mike Cordell Wins His Fourth Gold Ring

Mike Cordell rides Day 1 chip lead to fifth WSOP victory.

Mike Cordell does it again. He added another World Series of Poker piece of hardware to his collection by defeating the 1,208-player field in Event #3: $365 No-Limit Hold'em Re-Entry Sunday at Horseshoe Tunica. This was Cordell's third WSOP victory in the past year and he is less than two years removed from winning $346K and a bracelet in the 2016 Las Vegas World Series of Poker.

"It feels great, big field," said Cordell taking down Event #3 for his fourth Circuit ring. "Good payout."

Cordell earned $56,620 for his win, but that stands as only his third largest WSOP win. At the 2016 World Series of Poker he won $346,088 in the $1,500 No-Limit Hold'em Six Max event. Cordell kept this big scores rolling by winning the Baltimore Circuit Main Event last spring for $148,171. Cordell's WSOP resume now boasts one WSOP gold bracelet, four WSOP Circuit gold rings, 25 cashes and over $660K in tournament earnings.

Cordell attributes his success to "Running like God," finding good spots and staying aggressive. Cordell is from Little Rock, Arkansas.
