Louise Francouer Wins First Circuit Ring in Event #8

After over 10 years of playing Circuit events, Francouer comes away with a ring.

It might be fate for Louise Francouer, who just won her first WSOP Circuit ring and $17,621. She wasn't even planning on playing this event, but once she was at the felt, she never looked back.

"It's awesome. I feel incredible," Francouer said through her huge smile after the tournament. "I came in yesterday to sign up for HORSE," she explained. But she liked the schedule for this event better. It was close to the end of late-registration. But, she said, "I really wanted to play that afternoon. And I jumped in with 25 big blinds and chipped up pretty quickly, and the rest is history."

This has been a long time coming for Francouer. She mostly plays in Las Vegas and Los Angeles, so she doesn't travel the Circuit. But she also added, "I've been chasing something for a long time." And now, over a decade after her first Circuit cash, she finally has a ring to show for that chase.
