JOSEF TITTJUNG WINS 1st CIRCUIT RING IN EVENT 4

72-year-old Tulsa regular wins 1st ring in his hometown

Josef Tittjung is a regular poker player in Oklahoma and has competed in tournaments with Scotty Nguyen. He finally won his first WSOP Circuit ring in one of his home casinos and couldn't be happier. "This stuff is great, you know. I love it. I love the challenge - there's some super players here." Tittjung won the Double Stack for his second-biggest score worth $23,806. He defeated three-time Circuit ring champion Justin Gardenhire.

Tittjung is a veteran of the game and started playing five and seven-card stud back in the day. "I was in Vegas in the early part of the 70's and I was walking around these tables and thought, what the heck? What's with these community cards?" laughed Tittjung. He eventually became accustomed to the game and the rest is history. The newly-crowned champion is now a regular in these parts and hopes to continue his winning streak the rest of the week. "I love that challenge. It's a mind game" continued Tittjung.
