JOHN DOLLINGER WINS $59,536 IN EVENT #8

Former Circuit Harrah's New Orleans Main Event Runner-up Wins First Circuit Ring

Gulf Breeze, Florida's John Dollinger has claimed the first WSOP Circuit ring of his career by taking down Event #8: $1,125 No-Limit Hold'em $200,000 Guaranteed at Circuit Harrah's Cherokee. Dollinger earned his $59,536 winner's payday after finishing off a lengthy heads-up battle against Texan Daniel Jones.

Dollinger's first Circuit win follows several near misses in various events and tours, and the big payday is still only the second largest of his WSOP career. In May of 2016, Dollinger placed second in the Circuit Harrah's New Orleans main event, winning $145,186.

Dollinger, 30, describes his occupation as an "equity analyst," a procedure in which he achieved success this night in Cherokee.
