

WSOP CIRCUIT 2017-18 EVENT REPORT

Circuit Stop:	Horseshoe Baltimore	Date:	1 May 2018
Event:	Pot-Limit Omaha	Entries:	113
Buy-in:	$365	Prizepool:	$33,900

Nitis Udornpim Conquers a Tough Final Table in Event #6 to Find His First Signature Win in Maryland

Since moving to Maryland just a few months ago, Nitis Udornpim has been absolutely crushing in the tournament scene, culminating in his first World Series of Poker Circuit Ring.

Udornpim has been on an torrential heater in the tournament scene. In the five month span since moving, Udornpim has 18 recorded cashes across a multitude of different events totaling nearly $80,000 in live earnings. He has won his first WSOP Circuit event until Wednesday.

In the last couple months, Udornpim has won his first WSOP Circuit event until Wednesday.

The 23-year-old only considers himself to be a recreational player though, despite the success. For his day job, Udornpim is a financial analyst for the Bank of America. According to him, he learned his poker skills first, before his banking skills.

Udornpim became a financial advisor. It definitely helps, but it was poker first. Poker is still a little more of a passion.

Udornpim finished Event #4: $1,000 No-Limit Omaha for $16,518.

Udornpim's victory was a surprise to many, as he had never really looked like a contender before. He defeated a stacked final table that included ring winners such as Allen Kessler, DJ MacKinnon, and Kyle Adams to claim his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring and a first place prize worth $10,172.

Udornpim's victory was a surprise to many, as he had never really looked like a contender before. He defeated a stacked final table that included ring winners such as Allen Kessler, DJ MacKinnon, and Kyle Adams to claim his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring and a first place prize worth $10,172.

Udornpim's victory was a surprise to many, as he had never really looked like a contender before. He defeated a stacked final table that included ring winners such as Allen Kessler, DJ MacKinnon, and Kyle Adams to claim his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring and a first place prize worth $10,172.

Udornpim defeated a stacked final table that included ring winners such as Allen Kessler, DJ MacKinnon, and Kyle Adams to claim his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring and a first place prize worth $10,172.

---

MEET THE LATEST WSOP CIRCUIT RING WINNER

Name:	Nitis Udornpim	Age:	23
Nationality:	USA	Profession:	Financial Analyst
Birthplace:	Thailand	WSOP Bracelets:	0
Current Residence:	Columbia, MD	Previous WSOP Circuit Rings:	0

---

DIRECT LINKS

FULL RESULTS

"Udornpim" #1 - OFFICIAL WSOP PLAYER PROFILE

OFFICIAL WINNER PHOTO