DOMINIQUE DUNN WINS 1ST RING OF THE SEASON

Recreational player and college student wins first career tournament

Havelock, North Carolina's own Dominique Dunn is on cloud nine after winning his first ever tournament and booking his second career cash. "This is liberating. This is a great, great feeling for anyone that is a recreational player. To be able to achieve something of his magnitude is a great feeling" gushed the newly crowned champion.

Dunn started playing poker two years ago and says he is self-taught. He has been practicing with friends and said, "I came out here to bet on myself and it worked." "I don't have a big ol' bankroll. I'm 25 years old – a broke college kid. I work at Walmart" continued Dunn. He is currently studying psychology and is a family-oriented guy. "This is beyond measure for me. I'm going to take a moment and collect myself just enjoy the night with my friends. I can assure you that this won't be my last run."
