AARON LASATER WINS 1ST CIRCUIT RING AT CHEROKEE

Poker pro wins first Circuit ring after 14 years in the industry

Aaron Lasater has taken down the Monster Stack for his biggest career cash and first win worth $70,231. The poker pro from Georgia also came in 4th place in the Pot-Limit Omaha event earlier this week.

Lasater bested a field of 1,199 to finally seal the deal in his 14-year poker career. When asked what he has done to keep up with the increasingly tough fields in poker he said he has made the switch from No-Limit Hold'em, for the most part, to playing Pot-Limit Omaha. "Cash games and tournaments. And just learn most of the games and be aware of what the next big thing will be" continued Lasater. The newly crowned family man plans to take a vacation after this series is over and enjoy his winnings.
