JUSTIN CAREY CONTINUES BREAKOUT YEAR, WINS FOXWOODS EVENT #6 AND 1ST WSOP CIRCUIT RING

Justin Carey continues to climb the ranks at an early age

Justin Carey is the newest World Series of Poker Circuit ring winner after taking down the $600 No-Limit Hold'em Foxwoods Event #6 for $18,313, and his first Circuit ring.

Carey turned 21 years old just nine months ago and has managed to amass just under $30,000 in earnings prior to today's win. His biggest score came this past summer when he placed 65th in the WSOP $1,500 Millionaire Maker tournament for $14,944. Today's win surpassed that score and added an impressive $18,313 to his lifetime earnings.

Carey's friend David Mock said that he is proud of him for getting this win under his belt, saying he shows so much potential this early on in his poker career.

Carey attributes focus to helping him win this tournament, "Just before the final table I was involved in a three-way all-in with pocket aces against ace-queen and a pair of nines. I lost that hand when the nines flopped a set, but I stayed focused and still got the job done despite the setback."
