COREY HODGEMAN WINS TURBO FOR 1ST GOLD RING

Tennessee native claims gold in third-ever live tournament experience.

Using some free time, Corey Hodgeman decided to enter in the first event of the Horseshoe Southern Indiana Circuit series and came out with a World Series of Poker gold ring. The 31-year-old from defeated a field of 185 entrants in Event #1: $400 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo.

The tournament took finished in just one day, almost 12 hours to be exact. The short levels and face-paced style was to Hodgeman's liking. Most of his poker experience is derived from playing online.

"It's only my third live tournament; first cash, first final table, first win, all in the same day," said Hodgeman. "It feels good."

Hodgeman's lack of live tournament practice did not stop him from finding success. Along with the gold ring, he also earned the top prize of $15,873. A couple days away from his family to try his hand at a Circuit event, granted by his loving wife, turned into a lucrative leave of absence. The Gallantin, Tennessee native can now return home to her, and their two boys, with a solid payday and memorable story.
