JASON WHEATLEY WINS $50,358 AND 1ST GOLD RING

Long-awaited victory comes in momentous form for Jason Wheatley.

In the wee hours of Monday morning at the World Series of Poker Circuit at Horseshoe Southern Indiana, Jason Wheatley came away with a momentous victory. The 39-year-old conquered a field of 763 entrants in Event #2: $400 No-Limit Hold'em Re-Entry to win $50,358 and his first gold ring.

The tournament consisted of two separate starting flights and an extensive Day 2. Wheatley emerged from Flight B with 260,500 in chips, which put him top ten in the counts going into the next stage.

A total of 93 players advanced to Day 2, which began at 2:00 p.m. Sunday. It was not till around 3:00 a.m. Monday morning when Wheatley scooped the final pot of the tournament with his pocket sevens.

“It feels great. It’s long overdue. I’ve been playing for 20 years. I’ve won a few small tournaments, but this is the first big one,” said Wheatley.

Wheatley has been playing poker recreationally for a while and now has a huge milestone to show for his years of experience. The Kentucky native must return home for work this week but does plan on playing in the Horseshoe Southern Indian Main Event next weekend.
