MICHAEL WHITTON WINS PLO GOLD ON THE BOAT

Avid PLO player takes down Event #9 for first gold ring.

Michael Whitton came to the World Series of Poker Circuit at Horseshoe Southern Indiana to play his favorite game, Pot-Limit Omaha. The Georgia resident showed up for Event #9: PLO Rebuy and ultimately topped a field of 83 players.

The tournament took two days to complete and generated a prizepool of $77,486 that paid out the top-nine finishers. Whitton had just 10 big blinds going into the official final table but held strong and made it to Day 2.

On Day 2, Whitton ran it up, placing himself in the final four. From there, he knocked out the next two opponents and had a solid chip stack for heads-up action. In the end, Whitton eliminated Matt Sterling for the PLO title.

Whitton owns a jewelry store back in his home state of Georgia, so winning a trophy ring was fitting. Along with the WSOP gold ring, Whitton was also awarded the first-place prize of $24,796 and 50 Casino Championship points.
