JOSHUA REICHARD WINS 10TH WSOP CIRCUIT RING IN HAMMOND

Josh Reichard's tenth ring puts him third on the all time list

Josh Reichard won his tenth career World Series of Poker Circuit ring Tuesday night with a victory at Horseshoe Hammond. Reichard won Event #6: $400 No-Limit Hold'em Monster Stack earning $38,392 for his victory.

“It feels great, this was especially fun because it was a really friendly talkative final table everybody had a good time.”

Reichard came to the final table with a commanding chip lead. “There was one point where my buddy [Chris] Conrad on my left got a double knockout so he was close to me in chips. I lost the chiplead for a little while but I hung in there, won some all ins, got lucky in some pots and it ended up working out.”

Richard wanted to shout out to his dad who taught him to play poker, his wife for being so supportive, and Amanda Heibrick for letting him win King Queen to Ace King before the money.
