WENDY FREEDMAN WINS 3RD WSOP CIRCUIT RING IN HAMMOND

After coming into Day 2 with 1.5 bets Wendy Freeman spins it up to win her third ring and $12,197

The three-ring club now has a new member. Wendy Freedman won her third career World Series of Poker Circuit ring Friday night with a victory at the Horseshoe Hammond. Freedman won Event #10: $400 Omaha 8 or Better, earning $12,197 for her victory.

She started heads up against David Larson by saying "I'd like to see you win, I just don't want you to beat me." When it seemed like the heads up battle would never end Larson said "Eventually the blinds will be everything-everything and then we'll have to go home." Larson got pocket kings against Freedman's pocket aces and won twice but it was Freedman who prevailed. She said "It was to fun play against him, I've known him forever he's one of the first guys I've ever played poker with." This is Larson's second runner-up finish of this series.

Freedman started Day 2 at the bottom of the chip counts with only one and a half bets. She made it to the final table at the middle of the pack. "The final table was a lot of fun, I had a really good time. So much can happen, I came in as the short stack and the cards fell in my favor"
