BART BOGARD GRABS 2ND RING OF THE SEASON

After an incredible run at Choctaw in November, Bart Bogard returns, winning gold again.

A repeat achiever was crowned Tuesday evening at the World Series of Poker Circuit stop in Durant, Oklahoma. It was Bart Bogard taking down a 147-entrant field in Event #8: $400 No-Limit Hold'em to win $13,583 and his second gold ring of the 2018/19 Circuit season.

During the first Choctaw Circuit of the season, Bogard went on a tear, cashing in six events and grabbing his debut gold ring. The 38-year-old returned for round number two at Choctaw and picked up his second title in exactly two months' time.

Although Bogard had a dominate series back in November, the Casino Championship eluded him on account of Jared Hemingway having an unprecedented series himself.

"No, not at all," Bogard responded when asked if the Casino Champ snub tilted him in any way. "I knew I had enough points to where I just grind this event here in Choctaw... then also Tulsa, so there would be plenty of time for me to hit a top-50."

Bogard put the near miss behind him and set his sights on grinding the future Oklahoma Circuit series in order to solidify himself among the top-50 points leaders, all of whom receive an automatic bid to the 2019 Global Casino Championship at the end of the season.

With another win under his belt and 50 more points, the Texas native now sits tied for 9th on the National Leaderboard with 175 points. Bogard is in good position and there are still ring events to be weathered at his seemingly second home, Choctaw Durant.
