KEVIN MEEUSEN WINS PLO FOR 2ND CAREER RING

Meeusen's second ring comes more than five years after the first.

27 March, 2019 (Las Vegas) Kevin Meeusen won his first WSOP Circuit ring over five years ago. He now has a matching pair after earning his second ring in the pot-limit Omaha event at Bally's Las Vegas.

Meeusen nearly had to wait longer. He started Day 2 second in chips out of 12 players, but foundered himself short-stacked at the final table. Then again, once he was heads up against Matt Silva (the eventual runner-up finisher), Meeusen had to overcome a substantial chip deficit. But in the end, Meeusen ended up with all the chips, his second career ring, and the first-place prize of $14,612.
