Jarod Minghini Wins His Third WSOP Circuit Ring

Jarod Minghini has just won his third career World Series of Poker Circuit ring. Minghini defeated a 123-player field in Event #13: $400 No-Limit Hold'em to earn $11,371 and for him, the valuable 50 Global Casino Championship points that comes along with a WSOP Circuit win.

"I feel relieved," said Minghini. "I came down here pretty much chasing points. I was at like 150 coming into here."

It was rough start to the series for Minghini. He didn't cash in any events up to this point and had accumulated zero points.

"Max bullets in everything I played," said Minghini.

To be exact exact, Minghini was at 147.5 points and in 58th place in the season-long standings entering this event. This win pushes Minghini up to 197.5 points on the season and into the top 50. The top 50 point earners at the end of the season will all earn free entries to the $1 million guaranteed 2019 Global Casino Championship.

After the Bally's Circuit is complete, there are four more Circuit stops remaining in the 2018/2019 season - Horseshoe Council Bluffs (currently running), Harrah's Cherokee, Horseshoe Tunica and Harrah's New Orleans.

Minghini said that he may go to Harrah's New Orleans to try to get a few more points if necessary. At this point, it's looking like Minghini's 197.5 points will be good enough to get him in the Global Casino Championship as one of the top 50 season pointer earners, but a couple of deep runs by other players currently on the bubble could change that, so Minghini will be doing some scoreboard watching over the next few weeks. This marked Minghini's 10th cash, fourth final table and second win of the season.

Minghini owns a boat rental company business in Lake Tahoe. The business keeps him really busy during the summers and that is one reason he has only played in one WSOP bracelet event in his life. He hopes that is about to change soon with his business growing. His staff is growing and he said that he hopes that will allow him to get away more often.

"I want to play the Main," said Minghini. "The plan is to definitely play some events this summer."
