PETER BAE EARNS FIRST CIRCUIT RING IN FIRST WSOP CASH

He collects $12,886 along with the title.

Peter Bae just won his first Circuit ring by winning Event #4, $250 No-Limit Hold'em Re-entry, at the Harrah's Atlantic City.

His win marks his first WSOP cash. The 32-year-old student, passionate about poker, topped a field of 263 entries and collected $12,886 for his victory.

Bae would like to dedicate this tournament win to his mother, and plans to give her his winnings.

"It feels fantastic. I did it for my mother. She's the best. And also for my brother Justin. I'm giving my mother the money."

Bae started the final table as the chip leader, and managed to keep it up all the way.

"I think my dad definitely looked out for me, he's my guardian angel."

Although he mostly plays cash games, he intends to take a shot at more events, including the Main Event.

"I'm gonna play the Main Event. I was going to play the satellite but now I don't have to. I'm just going to buy right in."
