MICHAEL MARDER IS THE CHAMPION OF EVENT #12

He takes home his first Circuit ring and $10,394.

Michael Marder crushed the WSOP Circuit stop at Harrah's Atlantic City. Out of 13 events, he cashed in six of them, and reached the final table of four. Today, he managed to finally close one out by winning Event #12, $400 No-Limit Hold'em.

"I was running really well this series. I was playing well too. This is my 4th final table. The other finishes were kind of frustrating at the end. I mean, bitter sweet always. Today I actually came in with chips, so I was really hoping to close it out, and everything went my way. It feels pretty good,"

The heads-up battle lasted over four hours and Marder got very short at some point. However, that didn't last long, as Marder fought back to retake the chip lead, and claim the winner title.

With his win, and only one event left to go, Marder currently holds the lead in the race for Casino Champion.

"I might have locked it down."
