SOHEB PORBANDARWALA EARNS 3RD CIRCUIT RING IN FINAL EVENT

He takes home $9,602 for his victory.

Soheb Porbandarwala added a third ring to his trophy case in the last event of the series after defeating 97 players in Event #13.

"I feel good. This one was pretty important just because I needed it for the points for the National Championship, and I've had plenty of chances to get points this series. I blew shot after shot, including in the Main, so, it was pretty important to get this one."

Porbandarwala crushed this stop and managed to make three final tables in twelve days.

"I ran really good. I think I played really well too. I don't normally say that. It's really nice to end the series like this. It's bitter sweet but I'm excited to go home."

Last season, Porbandarwala won the Main Event at Harrah's Atlantic City. One of his goals was to defend his title, and he came extremely close to it. However, he was eliminated in 11th place right before the unofficial final table was reached.

"This is the only stop I came to this year because I won the Main here last year, and I wanted to come defend. I came close to defending. That would have been great. But now I have enough points to go to Cherokee in August, that was the goal. I accomplished my goal so I can't be too upset about that."

Porbandarwala collects $9,602 for his victory.
