JOSHUA THIBODAUX WINS 1ST CIRCUIT RING IN EVENT 6

Cash game player turns his focus on to tournaments and books a win on his home turf

Joshua Thibodaux took down Event #6: $250 No-Limit Hold'em for $16,451 and his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring. The newly crowned champion was the last one standing out of 424 entries, winning it on his home turf. "It feels great. It's a hobby, but I've played a lot," explained Thibodaux.

"I've always been more of a cash player," said Thibodaux. "I used to not like tournaments because it's such a long grind, so now I really wanna start focusing on them. It's so much more satisfying, going after that win." Thibodaux plans on frequenting the WSOP Circuit more often next season. "Nothing feels better than that first place."
