RAVI RAGHAVAN WINS MAIN EVENT AT HORSESHOE HAMMOND

Raghavan claims second ring in home casino three years after winning the High Roller Event at Hammond.

After falling just short several at the WSOP Circuit Main Event in St. Louis, Ravi Raghavan is now a World Series of Poker Circuit Main Event ring winner. Raghavan won the Main Event at Horseshoe Hammond, earning $272,322.

At the beginning of the day it was asked if Raghavan, who was the most accomplished player heading into the day, could re-create the Hammond magic that has benefitted him in the past. After 9 ½ hours of play, the answer to that question was a resounding yes.

“Pretty good, pretty good” said Raghavan, who seemed overcome with glee when asked how it felt to take yet another title in his home casino.

One of the perks of winning a WSOP circuit ring is the qualification for the year end Global Casino Championship which is something that Raghavan values as he was up to date on the point system and how it worked.

“That’s a great feature to get qualification to the GCC. It’s really tough to qualify and it’s really a big load off my mind now that I don’t have to chase it,” Raghavan added, “but that will not change my poker playing plans drastically in the coming months.

Raghavan explained, “I always play the driving distance circuit events, so I will go as planned.”

He admits that it does in fact put a new perspective on things as he clarified a few moments later, "you know I'm not sure, everything changes when you win a big one."

The win was certainly a big one for Raghavan as his WSOP earnings now eclipse the $1,000,000 mark after his victory.
