

WSOP CIRCUIT 2019-20 EVENT REPORT

Circuit Stop:	Planet Hollywood	Date:	15 November 2019
Event:	No-Limit Hold'em	Entries:	684
Buy-in:	$250	Prize Pool:	$136,800

TOM TRAN WINS OPENING EVENT IN LAS VEGAS

45 year-old from Orlando logs his first WSOP Circuit cash with a win at Planet Hollywood

Tom Tran is the first winner at Planet Hollywood's annual World Series of Poker Circuit stop. The newly crowned champion topped a field of 684 entries to win $25,431 for his first WSOP cash and biggest career score. "It's most exciting. It was a long grind but it's awesome to get to the end," said an elated Tran.

"I play many tournaments in Florida. Daytona, Miami and then we come out to Las Vegas twice a year," said Tran. This tournament win is by far Tran's biggest cash, and is six times his overall earnings. "This is one of the highest that I've won and it's a great feel of tournament. I definitely would play in the World Series of Poker Circuit again," smiled Tran.

The field was peppered with professional players, making the final table quite tough. Tran defeated two-time bracelet winner Brett Shaffer heads up, and three-time Circuit champion Wendy Freedman went out in 9th place. "Very tight and good players. I continued to play my game with the cards I got, and fortunately I lucked out in the end."

MEET THE LATEST WSOP CIRCUIT RING WINNER

Name:	Tom Tran	Age:	45
Nationality:	Vietnamese	Profession:	-
Birthplace:	Vietnam	WSOP Bracelets:	0
Current Residence:	Orlando, FL	Previous WSOP Circuit Rings:	0

DIRECT LINKS

FULL RESULTS

TOM TRAN'S OFFICIAL WSOP PLAYER PROFILE

OFFICIAL WINNER PHOTO