Event:	No-Limit Hold'em	Entries:	359
Buy-in:	$400	Prize Pool:	$118,470

JEFFREY STEPHENS WINS 1st RING IN EVENT #2

34 year-old from Ohio books his biggest win at Planet Hollywood

Jeffrey Stephens topped a field of 359 entries across three starting flights to win his very first World Series of Poker Circuit ring and $25,248. "It's the monkey off my back. I've got a runner-up in a big tour Main Event, and I've been so close so many times so to finally get a championship in a very reputable circuit means a lot to me," said an emotional Stephens.

"I've got a family that means the world to me and spending time with them is pretty cool. But they've seen Dad on TV and they'd like me to go play poker. It's what I love to do," Stephens is married with two kids, and splits his time between them and poker.

Stephens got into poker during the Moneymaker era, and has been playing for many years. "But beyond that my uncle plays, so I've got some family history in there," he smiled.
