JEFF TURTON WINS 1ST CIRCUIT RING IN LAS VEGAS

Financial advisor from Dallas books his 32nd WSOP Circuit cash and 1st win

After just a few hands on Day 2 of Event #13, Jeff Turton has won his first ever World Series of Poker Circuit ring at his ninth final table. The financial advisor from Dallas now has 32 cashes on the Circuit alone, and has accumulated over $215,000 in earnings after this $8,151 win.

There were just two players left on Day 2, and both Turton and Jason Mendoza came in to the day almost dead even in chips. Early in the match, Turton got his stack in the middle with ace-king and pulled ahead of Mendoza's pocket tens. Turton sealed the deal, and headed back to Day 2 of the Main Event, which he was multi-tabling.
