TODD MERCER WINS 2ND CIRCUIT RING AT CHEROKEE

Salesman from Elon wins his second ring and closes in on $500,000 in earnings

After two days of play, Todd Mercer is victorious in Event #4: $600 No-Limit Hold'em for $42,907 and his second career World Series of Poker Circuit ring. This is far from Mercer's biggest tournament cash, but was arguably one of the more memorable moments based on his massive rail.

"It feels excellent!" laughed Mercer. "I just appreciate everybody supporting me," said an emotional Mercer. Specifically, the newly crowned champion is overly appreciative of his wife for her support, as well as his brother-in-law Hunter for being on his rail the entire final table.

Mercer has been playing poker for a long time, but the reason he got into poker is similar to many. "Obviously the Chris MoneyMaker effect - just watching it (poker), and just the competition and all." As poker has gotten tougher, Mercer has worked on his game and focused on situational play. "Just playing a bunch and watching a bunch," explained Mercer.
